Item I re. the date from which the Act may come into force:-

It is a point for Orders as to whether the Act may come into force with effect from 1st July 1938 or earlier.

Item II :- Application of the Act ~~in~~ to Cases of States

For the extradition of and Surrender of fugitive Criminals, Mysore has entered into reciprocal Arrangements, with the Consent of the Govt of India, with the States mentioned in the margin.

1) Hyderabad
2) Sandur
3) Banganapalle
4) Sawanur
5) States adjoining Bombay Presidency
6) Travancore
7) Cochin
8) Pudukottai

from these States to Mysore. No mention has however been made in these registers regarding the conditions of surrender etc. The concerned files (Cts 231-09- ~~[illegible]~~ and 107-10) have been destroyed.

(h) Mewar and Porbandar States :-

In the cases of the above mentioned States, Govt signified their assent for entering into reciprocal arrangements in the matter of extradition of fugitive offenders from and to these States but no definite reply from the States appear to have been received as to their willingness or otherwise of the conditions specified by the Mysore Govt.

Kind reference is also invited to ~~[illegible]~~ the telegram from the Dewan of Porbandar State dt 8-7-[illegible] to the political Agent Rajkot in the matter. It is not clear from this as to whether that State has agreed to the conditions offered by the Mysore Govt.

all such Charges should be borne by the State or the Govt by whom the surrender is made; the surrender taking place at the frontier police station

Bombay Presidency

The feeding and escorting Charges of prisoners surrendered to the Bombay Presidency from this State are to be recovered from the Bombay Govt.

In respect of States adjoining the Bombay presidency, the question does not arise in view of the fact that a police escort from those States have to be sent to this State to take delivery of the accused persons.

Hyderabad State

The Hyderabad State have agreed that the Magistrate in Hyderabad shall not demand from Magistrate in Mysore any expenses in connection with the subsistence and transit

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

Extradition arrangements now exist between this State and the States of Hyderabad, Sandur, Banganapalle, Savanur and the States adjoining the Bombay Presidency. The arrangement with the first three States is that fugitive criminals are to be surrendered by one Government on the requisition of the other. The arrangements with the Savanur State is that a fugitive criminal will be surrendered on the receipt of a certificate from the Political Agent for Savanur that a prima facie case has been made out. The arrangement with the States adjoining the Bombay Presidency is that the letter of request from the State concerned will on receipt in the Mysore Residency, be countersigned by the Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident and forwarded to this Government for consideration and this Government has then to intimate whether or not the accused will be surrendered.

The procedure for giving effect to these arrangements rested mainly on executive action and the Act was introduced to regularise the existing practice by giving it a Statutory recognition. But while giving this statutory recognition, a slight departure from the existing practice is to be noticed in that the Act prescribes an inquiry by the Magistrate. This inquiry is not indispensable and it may not seriously affect the rights which the other States, particularly Hyderabad, Sandur and Banganapalli has under the existing - of Mysore and the Durbars.

With regard to the Bhor State, it is stated that the question would be considered if the Mysore Govt are ready to accept the surrender of the accused persons etc at Bhor, the Head Quarters of the State. In this connection, Kind reference is invited to G.O. of 26-4-1935 indicating the procedure in Inter-State Extradition between the Mysore State and the States adjoining the Bombay Presidency. According to this it is the State asking for the surrender of an accused has to send a police escort to Mysore State for taking delivery of the accused from Mysore and and a similar procedure has to be observed in cases of surrender to Mysore. It is for orders as to whether the attention of the Bhor State may be drawn to the existing practice in these cases.

5) In respect of Banade State it is stated that the Durbar are willing to enter into a reciprocal agreement with Mysore for Extradition of the accused persons under Section 8 of the Mysore Extradition Act and not under Sec 5 of the Act. It is submitted that Section 5 of the Act governs the conditions under which the surrender of fugitive criminals are to be made in the Case of Indian States while Section 8 of the Act lays down the procedure for surrender of fugitive criminals to British India.

(69) According to Section 5 of the Act which relates to the surrender of fugitive Criminals to the Indian States, the Magistrate in Mysore has to hold an enquiry and satisfy himself as to the existence of a prima facie case. In Cases of surrender to British India no question arises as to the examination of the existence of a prima facie case. In these Cases Govt will issue a warrant for to the Concerned Dist. Magistrate to surrender the Criminal to British Indian province.

(70) The Bansda State is stated to have noticed the above distinction between the Indian States and British India and it is stated that they are willing to enter into a reciprocal arrangement with Mysore if surrenders are given effect to on the lines prescribed in the case of British India. In view of the provisions of the Act, it may not be possible to agree to the conditions stipulated by Bansda State.

proposal of the Baroda State is not acceptable. The legislature has advisedly introduced a distinction between the procedure for extradition to Indian States and the procedure for extradition of British India. The Baroda is prepared to enter into reciprocal arrangement for the extradition of accused persons under Section 8 of the Extradition Act of 1938: But the procedure laid down in that Section is applicable in respect of the surrender of fugitive criminals in case of British India; and cannot apply to surrender of fugitive criminals to Indian States. It is for orders as to whether the Tata States may also be asked to observe the procedure in vogue in respect of Interstate extradition between Mysore and the States adjoining the Bombay Presidency. If this is observed, the question of Cost of Conveyance, the place of Surrender etc will not perhaps arise.

The Authorities of Aundh State have raised the question relating to the place of surrender of the fugitive Criminals. They are, it is stated, prepared to consider the question of reciprocity if Mysore Govt are agreed to accept the surrender at Aundh and to observe the procedure for extradition between Mysore and Aundh State as laid down in the Mysore Extradition Act.

The points raised by the Aundh State are similar to those suggested by the Bhor State. Kind reference is invited to this Office letter of 14.11.1938 in this behalf. Flag N

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

Subject.—

Reciprocal arrangements proposed to be entered into between Mysore and certain other Indian States in regard to extradition of fugitive criminals.

These papers relate to the reciprocal arrangements propose to be entered into between Mysore State and certain other Indian States in the matter of extradition of fugitive criminals.

In pursuance of Chapter II of the Mysore Extradition Act governing the conditions of surrender of fugitive criminals in cases of Indian States, it is necessary that the names of the States in respect of which the Mysore Extradition Act has to appl should be decided and the terms of arrangements mutually agreed upon in respect of each State should also be notified in the Gazette. The States mentioned in the appended statement were addressed through the Residency to ascertain whether the procedure contained in Chapter II of the Mysore Extradition Act and the Rules framed thereunder is acceptable to them in the matter of surrendering fugitive criminals to these States. While some of the States like Cochin, Pudukote and Bansda are not agreeable to enter into reciprocal arrangements with Mysore on the ground tha a distinction is made in the Mysore Extradition Act between the procedure for extradition to the Indian States and the procedure for extradition to British India, the States noted in the margin

Letter from the First Assistant to the Resident in Mysore to the Dewan of Mysore, No.3821, dated the 11th July 1905.

I am directed to address the Durbar regarding the procedure which should be adopted in extradition cases between the Mysore State and the Native States under the Political jurisdiction of the Government of Bombay.

In cases of extradition to Mysore, the procedure which the Bombay Government has agreed to accept is that the Resident shall forward to the Political Agent of the Native State concerned a certificate that a prima facie case has been made out against the accused person, together with an extradition warrant to cover his detention during transit through British territory en route to Mysore.

Mr. Williams considers that in cases of extradition from Mysore to another Native state, a similar procedure might suitably be adopted. The Chief Political officer of the State concerned should be required to send to this office the necessary certificate and warrant, and on their receipt, the Durbar would be moved to take steps for the surrender of the accused person. I am to request that the Resident may be favoured with the views of the Durbar in the matter.

~~Sir,~~

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No.R.Dis.F.500-38/R.O.I dated 20th October 1938 on the above subject, and to state that under the provisions of the Mysore Extradition Act, extradition with the Indian States is governed by Section 5 of the Act but not by Section 8 which however applies to the cases of extradition with British India only.

2. In the above circumstances, I am to state that the proposal of the Bansda State to the effect that the extradition arrangements between that State and Mysore should be given effect to under Section 8 of the Mysore Extradition Act, is not acceptable to the Government of Mysore.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

cedure in accordance with Chapter II of the Mysore Extradition Act, 1938.

2. I am further to state that the Diwan of Miraj (Junior) State says that the Miraj (Junior) Darbar have no objection to observe the procedure referred to above, provided that the same procedure is observed by the Mysore Government.

3. I am also to enclose a copy of letter No.205, dated the 14th October 1938, containing the views of the Ramdurg Darbar in the matter.

4. I am also to state that the Diwan of Phaltan State suggests that the reciprocal extradition arrangements between the Mysore Government and the Phaltan Darbar should be governed in terms of similar arrangements entered into by the Darbar and His Exalted Highness the Nizam's Government, a copy of which is enclosed.

NOTIFICATION.
(Dated the 4th March, 1938, re: Reciprocal Extradition Arrangements between the Hyderabad State and the Phaltan State).

It is hereby published for general information that the Phaltan Darbar and the Government of His Exalted Highness the Nizam have agreed with effect from the date of this Notification to act upon a system of strict reciprocity for the extradition of accused persons in accordance with the conditions laid down in the Schedule appended herewith.

K.V.Godbole
Dewan and President,
Executive Council,
Phaltan State.

1. The surrender of offenders between His Exalted Highness the Nizam's Government and the Phaltan State will be subject to the principles laid down in the Indian Extradition Act, 1903 (XV of 1903). The extradition of such offenders as are required by the Phaltan State will be arranged in accordance with the Hyderabad State Extradition Act, 1316 Fasli (II of 1316 Fasli) and Circular No.1 of 1325 Fasli issued thereunder; and those whose surrender is required by His Exalted Highness' Government will be dealt with in accordance with the principles of the Indian Extradition Act, 1903 (XV of 1903).

2. Neither Government shall be bound to surrender its own subjects. They may however surrender them if special reasons are furnished. The fact that the complainant and his witnesses reside in the State where the offence is committed would form a special reason.

If the person whose surrender is claimed should be of doubtful nationality, he shall be surrendered to the State making the requisition.

3. Requisition for the surrender of an accused shall be accompanied by evidence of criminality, the surrendering State having the discretion to call for additional evidence, if it considers that a prima facie case has not been made out.

4. When the surrender of property only is required, the State requisitioning its surrender shall furnish evidence of criminality to enable the authority concerned in the surrendering State to take action under the provision of the State law corresponding to Section 523 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898 (V of 1898).

enable

5. The surrendering State shall arrange for the conveyance of the accused to the frontier police authorities of the State making the rquisition for surrender, for transmission to the authority mentioned in the requisition. When requisition is made for the surrender of property only such property shall be made over to the authority set out in the requisition. In either case the cost of conveyance shall be borne by the surrendering State.

Procedure for Interstatal Extradition between the Mysore and the Deccan States in accordance with the Mysore Extradition Act, 1938.

In continuation of this Agency letter No.J-151/38, dated the 27th October 1938, on the above subject, I am directed to state that the Diwan of Jath says that the Jath Darbar have no objection to agree to the procedure for Interstatal Extradition between the Mysore Government and the Jath Darbar in accordance with the Mysore Extradition Act, 1938, provided that the cost for conveyance of accused persons or muddemal property are borne by the surrendering State and on similar lines indicated in the notification regarding Reciprocal Extradition arrangements with H.E.H. the Nizam's Government.

2. The Diwan of Aundh says that there is no mention to the place of surrender of the accused in the Mysore Extradition Act, 1938, and that if the Mysore Government are prepared to surrender the accused persons etc., at Aundh, the capital of the State, and are ready to observe the same procedure for extradition between the Mysore Government and the Aundh Darbar, as laid down in the Mysore Extradition Act, 1938, the Darbar will further consider the question of reciprocity.

3. The State Karbhari, Kurundwad (Senior) State says that the Darbar have no objection to follow the procedure in the matter of extradition between the Mysore Government and the Darbar in accordance with Chapter II of the Act.

2. The reciprocal arrangement in extradition matters obtaining between Baroda on one hand and British India or Indian States on the other is that the surrendering authorities hand over the accused at their own expense to the magistrate mentioned in the requisition of the demanding State. No warrant from the political officer concerned to cover transit through British territory is usually obtained in these cases. This procedure, which is simple, has worked satisfactorily. If any accused persons escape from the custody of the surrendering authority in British India, the British courts concerned try and convict the accused for the offence of escaping from lawful custody (Please see your letter No.14089 dated 11th October 1929). There is, therefore, no risk in following the above procedure.

---:O:---

Extradition arrangements between the Bansda and the Mysore States for the extradition of accused persons.

With reference to your letter No.28621 dated the 9th instant I have the honour to state that it is a matter of much regret that the proposal of this Darbar is not acceptable to the Mysore Darbar.

In this connection I would observe that the procedure laid down in Section 5 of the Mysore Extradition Act - besides creating invidious distinction between British India and Indian India to which they themselves belong - militates against the principle of the Indian Extradition Act which is commonly adopted by the States for extradition purposes inter se and which does not compel a requisitioning States to prove a prima facie case before a Magistrate even in British India by producing necessary witnesses in support of the requisition but recognises the Political Officer's certificate. Thus it is derogatory both to the Political Officers of the Government of India and the States.

Moreover it would cause an enormous amount of expense and inconvenience to the requisitioning State which happens to be at a long distance from Mysore. Even under the Indian Criminal Procedure Code evidence is taken by a commission in the case where it might be expensive and inconvenient to produce witnesses Further the channel of forwarding the requisition also requires an elucidation as to whether it can be sent directly or through the Residencies concerned.

In the circumstances the Bansda Durbar request the Resident to be pleased to exert his good offices in getting their proposal accepted by the Mysore Darbar.

I am directed to state that extradition arrangements between Nigeria and the Foreign States can only be governed by the provisions under Chapter II of the Nigeria Extradition Act Cap 125 and the Act does not extend the provisions thereof to any of the Foreign States in the absence of any arrangement in the procedure enunciated in Chapter II of the Act. This is purely on reciprocal basis and this explains why there may not be any agreement in force applicable to the various arrangements in the matter of surrendering fugitive criminals, in accordance with Chapter II of the Act.

Ghana, State may accept a similar procedure in respect of surrender of fugitive criminals to this State.

I am in the circumstances

Subject:- Reciprocal arrangements between the Bansda and Mysore States for the Extradition of accused persons.

Sir,

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No.R.Dis. No.F.500-38/R.O.I. dated 25th January 1939 on the above subject, I am directed to state that extradition arrangements between Mysore and the Indian States can only be governed by the Provisions under Chapter II of the Mysore Extradition Act VI of 1938 and the Act does not allow the procedure under Section 8 to apply to the Indian States. There is nothing derogatory in the procedure enunciated in Chapter II of the Act. This is purely a reciprocal matter and the Bansda State may adopt a similar procedure in respect of surrender of fugutive criminals to this State.

I am, in the circumstances, to request that if there is no objection the Bansda Durbar may kindly be consulted in the matter and the Government favoured with their views.

The Sandur Extradition Act

(No. I of 1932)

An Act to regulate the procedure in regard to persons accused of offences committed out of Sandur State and taking refuge in, or escaping into, or who may be found in the Sandur State, passed by Raja Shrimant Yeshwantrao Hindurao Ghorpade, Mamlakatmadar, Senapathi, Ruler of Sandur, on the 20th December 1932, being the year two hundred and four of the Hindurao Shaka.

Preamble

Whereas it is expedient to regulate the procedure in regard to persons accused of offences committed out of Sandur State and taking refuge in or escaping into, or who may be found in the Sandur State, We are hereby pleased to enact as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (i) This Act may be called THE SANDUR EXTRADITION ACT I of 1932;

(ii) It extends to the whole of the Sandur State and shall come into force on such date as Our Government may by notification appoint.

Repeal of enactments.

2. All previous enactments, orders, rules, regulations having the force of law in this regard are hereby repealed.

Arrest and removal of persons escaping into Sandur State.

3. When an offence has been committed or is alleged to have been committed by any person in any territory against the law of that territory, and such person escapes into or is in Sandur State, the Dewan may direct the District Magistrate to issue a warrant for his arrest and delivery at a place, and to a person to be named in the warrant, if the Dewan is of opinion that the offence is one which ought to be inquired into in that territory and if the act said to have been done would, if done in Sandur State, constitute an offence against any of the Sections mentioned in the Schedule hereto annexed, of the Sandur Penal Code (XVII of 1931) or under any other Section of the said Code, or any other law, which may, from time to time be specified by Our Government by a Notification.

Execution of warrant.

4. Such warrant shall be executed in the manner provided by the law for the time being in force with reference to the execution of warrants, and the accused person, when arrested shall be forwarded to the place and delivered to the officer named in the warrant.

Magistrate may in certain cases issue warrant for arrest of person accused of having committed an offence out of Sandur State.

5. When any person accused or suspected of having committed an offence out of the Sandur State is within the local limits of the jurisdiction of a Magistrate in Sandur State and it appears to such Magistrate that the Political Agent could demand his surrender, such Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person on such information or complaint and such evidence as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of such a warrant if the offence had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdicton.

Magistrate to report to Dewan.

Any Magistrate issuing a warrant under this Section shall at once report his proceedings to Our Government.

Person arrested to be released after certain time if not proceeded against.

6. No person arrested on a warrant issued by a Magistrate under Section 5 shall be detained more than two months from the date of his arrest unless within such period the Magistrate receives a warrant under Section 3 from the District Magistrate for the delivery of such person.

Any time before the receipt of such a warrant, the Magistrate, if he thinks fit, may and the Magistrate if so directed by the District Magistrate shall discharge the accused person.

Bail.

7. The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act XVI of 1931) in respect of bail shall apply in the case of any person arrested under Section 5 in the same manner as if such person were accused of committing in Sandur State the offence with which he is charged.

Proclamation and attachment in case of persons absconding.

8. The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act XVI of 1931) for the time being in force in relation to proclamation and attachment in the case of persons absconding shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to warrants issued by Magistrates under this Act.

Surrender of person undergoing sentence in Sandur State.

9. Where a person surrendered under the provisions of this Act is, on the date of such surrender, undergoing sentence under a conviction within this State, his sentence shall be deemed to be suspended from the date of his surrender, till the date of his re-surrender, when it shall revive and have effect for the portion thereof which was unexpired at the time of his surrender.

Power of Government to stay proceedings and discharge persons in custody.

10. Our Government may by order stay any proceedings taken under this Act and may direct any warrant issued under this Act to be cancelled, and the person for whose arrest such warrant has been issued to be discharged.

Schedule

The Sections referred to are the Sections of the Sandur Penal Code (XVII of 1931)

CHIEF SECRETARY 3. MAY 1939 GOVT. OF MYSORE.

Interstatal extradition - Reciprocal arrangements between Mysore and certain other Indian States.

SIR,

I am directed to refer to your letters No.Pol.1331/Cts. 188-37-4, dated the 3rd June and No. Pol.1466/P, dated the 10th June 1938. Extracts from a letter from the Resident for the Madras States No.P.4.2751/38, dated the 15th March 1939 (with enclosures) are enclosed. EXTRADITION - INTERSTATAL EXTRADITION BETWEEN THE MADRAS STATES AND MYSORE STATE.

Ref:- Your letter No.F.500-38/R.O.I, dated the 5th September 1938.

I have the honour to inform you that the Travancore Government and the Banganapalle Darbar accept the procedure laid down in Chapter II of the Mysore Extradition Act (VI of 1938) for the extradition of fugitive offenders from Mysore to their States.

2. The Cochin Government observe that an extradition enquiry before a Magistrate in Mysore as contemplated in section 5(3) of the Mysore Extradition Act is too cumbersome a procedure to be accepted by them with advantage for any reciprocal arrangement. They are of the view that an arrangement similar to the one now in force between Cochin and Travancore (The Cochin Extradition Act (X of 1093)) or between Cochin and British India, (The Cochin Extradition Act I of 1082) will be better and more convenient. Copies of the two Cochin Acts referred to above are enclosed.

3. The Pudukkottai Darbar point out that the procedure prescribed by Chapter II of the Mysore Act is obviously bound to involve great expenditure of time and money and to put all concerned to much inconvenience, since a State applying to the Mysore Government for extradition has to establish to the satisfaction of the Mysore tribunal the guilt of the fugitive offender and that the procedure is the same as that of a Magistrate enquiring into an offence triable by a Court of Sessions. They observe that the Pudukkottai Extradition Regulation IV of 1892 (copy enclosed) as amended by Regulation III of 1932 (copy enclosed) makes no distinction between fugitives from Indian States and those from British India. It appears from their reply that the Pudukkottai Darbar are not agreeable to the procedure outlined in Chapter II of the Mysore Act. They are

HISTORY OF LEGISLATION.

Year.	Number.	Short title.	Amendments.
1093	X	The Cochin Extradition Act.	Amended by Acts I of 1109, and IX of 1111 and Proclamation V of 1112.

Passed by His Highness the [2] [Maharaja] of Cochin on the 24th day of Karkadagam 1093, corresponding to the 8th day of August 1918.

Preamble.

Whereas it is expedient to make better provision for the surrender to the State of Travancore, of persons accused or convicted of certain crimes within the jurisdiction of that State; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. This Act may be called "The Cochin Extradition Act." It extends to the whole of Cochin and shall come into force on the first day of Chingom 1094.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "Extradition offence", means any such offence as is described in the schedule ;

1. Substituted for 'Regulation' throughout the enactment by Proclamation V of 1112.
2. Substituted for "Raja" by section 2 of Act I of 1109

(b) "Offence" includes any act which would, if committed in Cochin, constitute an offence;

(c) "Rules" include prescribed forms.

CHAPTER II

SURRENDER OF ACCUSED PERSONS.

Requisition for surrender.

3. (1) Where an extradition offence has been committed or is supposed to have been committed by a person in the State of Travancore and such person escapes into or is in the State of Cochin, and the Diwan of Travancore makes a requisition through the British Resident to the Diwan of Cochin for the arrest and surrender of such person, the Diwan of Cochin on being satisfied that there is a prima facie case against him, shall issue orders to any magistrate not below the rank of a Magistrate of the first class for his arrest and delivery at a place and to a person or authority as mentioned in the requisition.

Issue of warrant and the execution of it.

(2) On receipt of the Diwan's orders, such magistrate shall issue a warrant for the arrest and delivery of that person at the place and to the person or authority indicated therein, and such warrant shall be executed in the manner provided by the law for the time being in force with reference to the execution of warrants, and the accused person, when arrested, shall, unless released in accordance with the provisions of this Act be forwarded to the place and delivered to the person or authority indicated in the warrant.

Proclamation and attachment in the case of persons absconding.

(3) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force, in relation to proclamation and attachment in the case of persons absconding, shall apply to warrants issued under this Act.

Release on giving security.

4. (1) Where the offence is a bailable one or where the Diwan of Travancore has so requested in the letter of requisition, the person whose surrender is required may be released on executing a bond with sufficient sureties for his attendance before a person or authority mentioned in the warrant at a specified time and place.

Magistrate to retain bond.

(2) When security is taken under this section the magistrate shall report the fact to the Diwan and shall retain the bond. The Diwan shall thereupon certify the fact to the Diwan of Travancore through the British Resident.

Re-arrest in case of default.

(3) If the person bound by any such bond does not appear at the time and place specified therein and the Diwan of Travancore informs the Diwan of Cochin of such default and requests the re-arrest and surrender of the defaulter, the Diwan of Cochin shall, on being satisfied of such default, require a magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction over the place where the accused is believed to be to issue a warrant directing that the defaulter be re-arrested and delivered at a place and to a person or authority as mentioned in the requisition.

Deposit in lieu of bond.

(4) In the case of any bond executed under this section, the magistrate may exercise the powers conferred by the Criminal Procedure Code for the time being in force in relation to taking a deposit in lieu of the execution of a bond and with respect to the forfeiture of bonds and the discharge of sureties.

Power to magistrates to issue warrant of arrest in certain cases.

5. (1) If it appears to any magistrate of the first class or any magistrate empowered by the Government in this behalf that a person within the local limits of his jurisdiction is accused or suspected of having committed an extradition offence in the Travancore State, he may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person on such information or complaint and on such evidence as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the offence had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

Issue of warrant to be reported forthwith.

(2) The magistrate shall forthwith report the issue of a warrant under this section to the Diwan who will communicate the fact to the Diwan of Travancore through the British Resident.

Limit of the time of detention of person arrested.

(3) A person arrested on a warrant issued under this section shall not, without the special sanction of the Diwan be detained more than 2 months, unless within that period the magistrate receives an order to issue a warrant under section 3.

Bail

(4) In the case of a person arrested or detained under this section, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force relating to bail shall apply in the same manner as if such person were accused of committing in the State of Cochin the offence with which he is charged.

Surrender of persons accused of or undergoing sentence for offence in the State of Cochin.

6. (1) A person accused of an offence committed in Cochin not being the offence for which his surrender is asked, or undergoing sentence under any conviction in Cochin, shall not be surrendered in compliance with a requisition made on behalf of the Travancore State under section 3, except on the condition that such person be re-surrendered to Cochin on the termination of his trial for the offence for which his surrender has been asked.

Provided that no such condition shall be deemed to prevent or postpone the execution of a sentence of death lawfully passed.

Suspension of sentence on surrender.

(2) On the surrender of a person undergoing sentence under a conviction in the Cochin State, his sentence shall be deemed to be suspended until the date of his re-surrender, when it shall revive and have effect for the portion thereof which had not expired at the date of his surrender.

Return of prisoner after trial to serve out unexpired portion of sentence.

(3) Such person shall be returned to the authorities of the Cochin State, as soon as his trial in Travancore is over, and the sentence, if any, except that of death passed on him by the court in Travancore will take effect only after he is re-delivered by the Cochin State and after he has undergone in a Cochin jail the unexpired portion of the sentence passed upon him by the Cochin Court.

Application of chapter to convicted persons.

7. The provisions of this chapter with reference to accused persons shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to the case of a person who having been convicted in the State of Travancore, has escaped into or is in the State of Cochin before his sentence has expired.

Abetment and attempt.

8. Every person who is accused or convicted of abetting or attempting to commit any offence shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act, to be accused or convicted of having committed such offence, and shall be liable to be arrested and surrendered accordingly.

Lawfulness of custody and re-taking under warrant issued under chapter.

9. It shall be lawful for any person to whom a warrant is directed in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter to receive, hold in custody and convey the person mentioned in the warrant, to the place named in the warrant, and if such person escapes out of any custody to which he may be delivered in pursuance of such warrant, he may be re-taken as a person accused of any offence against the law of Cochin may be re-taken upon an escape.

CHAPTER III

SUPPLEMENTARY.

Power to make rules.

10. (1) The Diwan may, with the sanction of His Highness the [1] [Maharaja] make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

1. Substituted for 'Raja' by section 2 of Act I of 1109.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) the removal of prisoners accused or in custody under this Act and their control and maintenance until such time as they are handed over to the persons authorised to receive them,

(b) the seizure and disposition of any property which is the subject of, or required for proof of, any alleged offence to which this Act applies,

(c) the pursuit and arrest in the Cochin State by officers of the Cochin Government or other persons authorised in this behalf, of persons accused of offences committed in the State of Travancore, and

(d) the procedure and practice to be observed in extradition proceedings.

(3) Rules made under this section shall be published in the Cochin Government Gazette and shall thereupon have effect as if enacted by this Act.

Detention of persons arrested under section 39 clause (7) of Act II of 1086.

11. Notwithstanding anything in the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, II of 1086, any person arrested without an order from a magistrate and without warrant, in pursuance of the provisions of section 39 clause 7 of the said Code may, under the orders of a magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such arrest was made, be detained in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions as a person arrested on a warrant issued by such magistrate under section 5.

The accused person may be convicted for minor extraditable offence on the same facts.

12. If, after a person accused of having committed any extraditable offence in Cochin has been surrendered by the Travancore State, it is found during his trial in Cochin that he is not guilty of the offence for which he was extradited but only of a minor offence, it shall be competent to the Magistrate or Judge to alter the charge under section 203, Criminal Procedure Code, and under section 214 to convict him of the minor offence which the evidence has established provided that the trial of the accused person must be for the graver offence for which extradition was obtained, that the conviction of the minor offence must be on the same facts and that the minor offence must itself be extraditable.

Prohibition of trial for offences committed prior to the surrender.

13. When a person accused or convicted of an offence in Cochin is surrendered by the State of Travancore, such person shall not be triable or tried for any of the offences committed in Cochin prior to surrender other than such of the said offences as may be proved by the facts on which the surrender is granted and as are extraditable unless the court concerned after submitting a prima facie case gets the assent of the authority which sanctioned the extradition.

History of Legislation.

Year.	Number.	Short title.	Amendments.
1082	I	The Cochin Extradition Act.	Amended by Acts II of 1108, I of 1109, and IV of 1111 and Proclamation V of 1112.

An Act to remove doubts as to the extradition of criminals from Cochin and to make express provision therefor.

Passed by His Highness the Maharaja on the 29th day of Thulam 1082 corresponding with the 14th day of November 1906.

Whereas it has been the usage to extradite from Cochin all persons who have committed or are suspected to have committed offences in British India and who escape into or are in Cochin, whether Cochin subjects or not, and for whose arrest applications have been received from the Agent to the Governor General, Madras States; and whereas doubts have arisen as to the legality of the existing usage; and whereas it is expedient to remove such doubts and make express provision for the extradition of such persons forthwith communicate with the Cochin police.

6. A person arrested by the British Indian Police under the authority of sections 3 to 5 shall forthwith be conveyed to the nearest place in which an officer of the Cochin Police is known to be and shall be handed over to the Cochin Police in that place.

7.(1). If it appears to any Magistrate not below the rank of the First Class that a person within the local limits of his jurisdiction is accused or suspected of having committed an offence in British India, and that such person may, if a requisition were made by the Agent to the Governor General, Madras States, be surrendered to the British authorities, the Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person on such information or complaint and on such evidence as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the offence had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

(2) The Magistrate shall forthwith report the issue of a warrant under this section to the Diwan.

(3) A person arrested on a warrant, issued under this section shall not, without the special sanction of the Diwan, be detained for more than two months, unless within such period the Magistrate receives an order from the Diwan made with reference to such person in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section2.

(4). In the case of a person arrested or detained under this section, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force relating to baill apply in the same manner as if such person were accused of committing in Cochin the offence with which he is charged.

8. (1). The Government may make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2). In particular and without prejudice to the generallty of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for -

(a) the removal of prisoners accused or in custody under this Act, and their control and maintenance until such time as they are handed over to the persons named in the warrant as entitled to receive them;

(b) the seizure and disposition of any property which is the subject of, or require for proof of, any alleged offence to which this Act applies ; and

(c) the procedure and practice to be observed in extradition proceedings.

(3) Rules made under this section shall be published in the Cochin Government Gazette and shall thereupon have effect as if enacted by this Act.

9. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, any person arrested without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant in pursuance of the provisions of section 39, clause seventhly, of the said code may, under the orders of a Magistrate, not below the rank of a Magistrate of the First Class, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such arrest was made be detained in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions as a person arrested on a warrant issued by such Magistrate under section 7.

REGULATION No. IV OF 1892.[1]

The Pudukkottai Extradition Regulation.

A Regulation to regulate the procedure of the Magistracy, etc., in regard to persons accused of offences committed out of Pudukkottai State and taking refuge in, or escaping into, or who may be found in, the Pudukkottai State.

Short title. 1. This Regulation may be called "The Pudukkottai Extradition Regulation 1892."

Extent. It extends to the whole of the Pudukkottai State;

Commencement. and it shall come into force on the passing thereof.[1]

Arrest and removal of persons escaping into Pudukkottai State. 2. (i) When an offence has been committed or is supposed to have been committed by any person in any territory against the law of that territory, and such person escapes into or is in Pudukkottai State, the [2][State Council] may direct the District Magistrate to issue a warrant for his arrest and delivery at a place, and to a person to be named in the warrant, if the [2][State Council] thinks that the offence is one which ought to be inquired into in that territory and if the act said to have been done would, if done in Pudukkottai State, constitute an offence against any of the sections, mentioned in the Schedule hereto annexed, of the Indian Penal Code in force in the State or under any other section of the said Code, or any other law, which may, from time to time be specified by the [2][State Council] by a Notification in the State Gazette.

[3]2. (2) Nothing contained in this Section shall be deemed to affect, in any manner, the power of the Government to direct the surrender of any person who has committed or is credibly alleged to have committed in British India an act constituting an offence under any law in force in British India and is within State territory irrespective of whether such act, if committed in Pudukkottai State would constitute an offence against any law in force therein.

Execution of warrant. 3. Such warrant shall be executed in the manner provided by the law for the time being in force with reference to the execution of warrants, and the accused person when arrested, shall be forwarded to the place and delivered to the officer named in the warrant.

[1] Published in the Pudukkottai Gazette, dated 4—8—1892.
[2] Substituted for the word 'Dewan' by Regulation I of 1909, section 3.
[3] Inserted by Regulation V of 1937.

4. When any person accused or suspected of having committed an offence out of the Pudukkottai State is within the local limits of the jurisdiction of a Magistrate in Pudukkottai State and it appears to such Magistrate that the Political Agent could demand his surrender, such Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person on such information or complaint and such evidence as would, in his opinion justify the issue of such a warrant if the offence had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

Magistrate may in certain cases issue warrant for arrest of person accused of having committed an offence out of Pudukkottai State.

Any Magistrate issuing a warrant under this section shall at once report his proceedings to the [1][State Council] through the District Magistrate.

Magistrate to report to [State Council].

5. No person arrested on a warrant issued by a Magistrate under section 4 shall be detained more than 2 months from the date of his arrest, unless within such period the Magistrate receives a warrant under section 2 from the District Magistrate for the delivery of such person.

Person arrested to be released after certain time if not proceeded against.

Any time before the receipt of such a warrant the Magistrate if he thinks fit may, and the Magistrate if so directed by the [1][State Council] shall, discharge the accused person.

6. The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure in respect of bail shall apply in the case of any person arrested under section 4 in the same manner as if such person were accused of committing in Pudukkottai State the offence with which he is charged.

Bail.

[2][7. The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force in relation to proclamation and attachment in the case of persons absconding shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to warrants issued by Magistrates under this Regulation].

[3][8. Where a person surrendered under the provisions of the Regulation is, on the date of such surrender, undergoing sentence under a conviction within this State, his sentence shall be deemed to be suspended from the date of his surrender till the date of his re-surrender, when it shall revive and have effect for the portion thereof which was unexpired at the time of his surrender].

[4]9. (1) The Government may make rules for the carrying out of the purposes of this Regulation.

[1] Substituted for the word 'Dewan' by Regulation I of 1909, section 3.
[2] Inserted by Regulation VI of 1912.
[3] Inserted by Regulation V of 1921.
[4] Inserted by Regulation No. III of 1932.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) the removal of prisoners accused or in custody under this Regulation and their control and maintenance until such time as they are handed over to the persons named in the warrant as entitled to receive them;

(b) the seizure and disposition of any property which is the subject of, or required for proof of, any alleged offence to which this Regulation applies;

(c) the pursuit and arrest in the Pudukkottai State by officers of the Government or other persons authorised in this behalf, of persons accused of offences committed elsewhere;

(d) the procedure and practice to be observed in Extradition proceedings.

(3) Rules made under this section shall be published in the Pudukkottai State Gazette and shall thereupon have effect, as if enacted by this Regulation.
